AI Overview

Donald Trump's relationship with radical feminism is highly adversarial, marked by intense ideological clashes and tactical alignments. While feminist groups strongly oppose his administration's policies on abortion and reproductive rights, Trump has frequently utilized rhetoric and policies against "gender ideology" that align with some gender-critical or trans-exclusionary radical feminist factions. The primary points of interaction between Trump and this ideological landscape include:

- Anti-"Gender Ideology" Alignment: Trump has signed executive orders, such as EO 14168 ("Defending Women from Gender Ideology Extremism and Restoring Biological Truth to the Federal Government"), which restrict the legal recognition of gender identity. This push to enforce a biological sex binary has inadvertently overlapped with the goals of gender-critical feminists who campaign to protect female-only spaces. The White House \(.gov\) +2
- Reproductive Rights Rollbacks: Mainstream radical and liberal feminist organizations view Trump as a primary adversary due to the appointment of conservative judges, the overturning of federal abortion protections, and actions to defund organizations like Planned Parenthood. The Conversation +2
- Public Discourse and Behavior: Feminist activists frequently criticize Trump's personal conduct, legal liabilities for sexual abuse, and rhetoric regarding women as an endorsement of the patriarchal structures that radical feminists actively seek to dismantle. YES! Magazine +2
