◆ AI Overview

The Cuban flag (La Estrella Solitaria or Lone Star) features five horizontal stripes (three blue, two white) and a red triangle on the hoist side with a white, five-pointed star in the center. Designed in 1849, it was officially adopted on May 20, 1902. ^W Wikipedia

Key Symbolism

- The Star: Stands for independence and freedom.
- The Triangle: Represents liberty, equality, and fraternity, with red signifying blood and courage.
- The Stripes: The three blue stripes represent the three historical departments of Cuba (Western, Central, and Eastern), while the two white stripes symbolize the purity of the patriotic cause. ^Y YouTube · General Knowledge +1

Historical Background

The flag was created in 1849 by anti-Spanish exiles, including writer Narciso López and poet Miguel Teurbe Tolón. It bears a striking, reversed-color resemblance to the flag of Puerto Rico, reflecting the historical connection between the two independence movements. ^B Britannica +4
