How to Help Find "Taco the Cat" in Chicago, IL

If "Taco the Cat" is missing in Chicago, you can increase the chances of a reunion by using local lost pet resources and following the city's recommended steps.

1. Check official lost pet listings

- Pet911 Chicago lists recent lost pets in the city, including cats. You can search their Chicago page for "Taco" or similar names to see if it's already posted pet911.org .
- Petco Love Lost Chicago has a searchable database of lost and found pets in the area, including recent reports from Nextdoor and Neighbors Petco Love .
- Lost My Kitty also maintains a Chicago lost cat database, searchable by name, breed, color, and location Lost My Kitty .

2. Use the City of Chicago's lost pet recovery process City of Chicago

- Walk around the area where Taco was last seen — many pets are found within blocks.
- Post a clear photo and description on Facebook, Nextdoor, and Petco Love Lost.
- File a lost pet report at 24 Petconnect (chgoall.24petconnect.com), Petco Love Lost, and Pet FBI.
- Put up flyers in your neighborhood and near parks.
- If Taco is microchipped, call the microchip company to report it missing.
- Place a blanket, bed, or clothing outside to help the cat return home.

3. Contact local shelters

Chicago Animal Care & Control (CACC) and other shelters like The Anti-Cruelty Society and One Tail at a Time post found pets online Petco Love . You can also call CACC at 312-744-5000 or 311 to report.

4. Social media alerts

- Post on Nextdoor with the exact address where Taco was last seen.
- Share on local Facebook groups (e.g., "Chicago Lost Pets" or "Chicago Animal Care & Control").
- Use hashtags like #ChicagoLostCat and #FindTaco.

5. If you find Taco

- Do not remove him from his environment unless he's sick or injured.
- File a found pet report and check for a collar/tag.
- If microchipped, scan at a vet, police station, or shelter.

Tip: Cats are over 13 times more likely to be reunited if left in place rather than taken to a shelter City of Chicago . Keep Taco in a safe, warm spot and keep the public informed.

You can start by searching "Taco the Cat" on Pet911 Chicago and Petco Love Lost Chicago to see if it's already listed, then follow the steps above to spread the word.
