I invested in this vibrator after ordering one from another company. I decided to order from Adam and Eve because they had an excellent return policy and lots of reviews. I received the order early

This was my first vibrator... Really debated it - but since my hubby is overseas I was starting to get a little frustrated. This is mind blowing. Never thought it was possible - but I was off in less than a minute! A must for every woman.

I surprised my wife with this one evening away on vacation. She got so worked up using this she came hard twice and the third time she squirted. She never did that before. She was mine the rest of the night
