Ingredients

- Chicken: 2 cups, boiled and shredded (or use pre-cooked rotisserie chicken)
- Vegetables & Seasonings: ½ cup chopped onion, 1 can chopped green chiles, and 1 packet taco seasoning
- Creamy Base: 2 cups cottage cheese and ½ cup sour cream
- Wrap: 12 (6-inch) corn or flour tortillas
- Sauce & Topping: 1 (10-oz) can red or green enchilada sauce and 2 cups shredded Monterey Jack cheese
- Pantry: 1 tbsp vegetable oil, plus salt and pepper to taste  Allrecipes +2

Step-by-Step Instructions

1. Prep the Filling: Preheat your oven to 350°F (175°C) and lightly grease a 9x13-inch baking dish. In a skillet with 1 tbsp vegetable oil, sauté the onions, green chiles, and shredded chicken until warm. Add the taco seasoning (and a splash of water) as directed on the packet, then remove from heat.  Allrecipes +1
2. Mix the Cheese: In a separate medium bowl, thoroughly blend the cottage cheese, sour cream, salt, and pepper.  Allrecipes
3. Assemble: Warm the tortillas slightly in the microwave so they roll without tearing. Lay a tortilla flat, scoop a spoonful of the chicken mixture and a spoonful of the cottage cheese mixture down the center, and sprinkle with a little Monterey Jack cheese.  Allrecipes +2
4. Roll & Bake: Roll each tortilla tightly and place them seam-side down in the baking dish. Pour the enchilada sauce evenly over the rolls, top with any remaining filling, and cover with the rest of the shredded Monterey Jack cheese.  Allrecipes

Recipe Variations

- Green Sauce Swap: Many home cooks swap the red canned sauce for a thick salsa verde or green enchilada sauce, which pairs wonderfully with the mild cottage cheese flavor.
- Tex-Mex Blend: Instead of just Monterey Jack, you can use a pre-mixed Mexican-blend or cheddar cheese.  Allrecipes +3
